Pierce Makes Strong Plea for Leniency — Mother and Aunt of Boys In Court.

Judge H. T. Maxfield today sentenced two 18-year-old auto thieves to long terms in the reformatory at Green Bay. Perry Street, Chicago, was given 40 months; his pal, William G. Bergmann, also of Chicago, was given 20 months.

Both pleaded guilty to stealing an automobile and to breaking into the home of a wealthy man in the morning of July 16. They were caught near Freeport the next day.

Had 6 Cents Left

They were "broke"—had only 6 cents between them—and had not eaten a real meal in several days. Maxfield said he had no right to get out of town. These were the reasons they offered in telling their stories in court today.

Charles Pierce, who appeared for Bergmann, made a touching appeal for leniency for both the criminals, saying it was the first time either had ever been arrested; that the parents and families of the lads would suffer ten-fold for whatever penalty was inflicted; that Bergmann is in poor physical condition; and that he deserved no more than leniency, for his mother died when he was a small boy, and he did not have the bringing up to which a boy is entitled. Mr. Pierce's plea was one of the most remarkable heard in a municipal court in a long time.

Bergmann Breaks Down

Street's aunt sat beside him throughout the examination. Young Bergmann, accompanied by his mother and brother, Both told their stories without hesitation. The Bergmann lad wept a little when he replied to questions as to what he had done with his money—that he had spent it on carfare, reviewed mostly at home in Chicago, Jackson, Mich., and then to Detroit. From testimony he was led to believe Street was the instigator of the plan to steal the Kahn machine—that Bergmann was easily led into doing anything, even against his better judgment.

References Offered

Mr. Pierce offered references from former employers and instructors of Bergmann. All testified to his excellent character—one employer expressed regret at his trouble and said he would be glad to hire him on parole.

RAPIDLY SUBSIDING

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

St. Louis, July 27.—Extravagant buying is rapidly subsiding, despite the fact that the purchasing power of the public has not diminished, according to the monthly report of the eighth federal reserve district issued here today.

The report states that department stores indicate customers are demanding the worth of their money in cash and credit.

Settlements from bond houses that the public is buying Liberty bonds over the counter "with eagerness" and the fact that there is a "well defined slowing down in the automobile industry" are further indicative of the general trend toward saving, the report states.

The vacancies are the result of deaths, resignations, and appointments to other offices. Some of the legislators whose seats have been declared vacant insist that they have not vacated their offices and are preparing to contest the elections. The legislature will meet August 3.

Dunwiddie Criticised for Alleged Failure to Back Police Department

Council Unanimously Requests Fire and Police Commission To Probe Situation, Especially Ludden Case.

Criticising District Attorney Stanley G. Dunwiddie for alleged failure to give local police the proper backing and charging that the district attorney's and sheriff's offices are playing politics, Ald. E. F. Badger sprang the surprise of the council meeting, Monday night.

Several councilmen took part in the 15-minutes' discussion precipitated by Alderman Badger's address.

At the end it was unanimously agreed to request the fire and police commission to investigate the situation, especially the Ludden case now in court, and to report back its findings to the council, at its next session, Aug. 9.

Delay in Warrants.

"I have it from competent authority," declared Mr. Badger, "that it takes Chief Morrissey anywhere from one to ten days to get a warrant to arrest a man. And I don't believe it's the chief's fault either. It could appear to me that why I can find out that the chief is not being properly backed by the district attorney.

The City's Experience.

"I had some experience along this line last year myself. When we caught that man stealing from the city's stone crusher we had him with the goods. I went to Mr. Dunwiddie about it to have the case closed. He said 'Yes' but to my knowledge nothing more was ever done about it. The man never was sentenced although he was caught with the goods."

He went on to explain what he learned about the Ludden case when he was involved in a stolen car stolen in Kansas City. He told of Chief Morrissey being refused a warrant by the district attorney to search the district attorney's office for the stolen car. Ludden got Howard.

"Simply because he wasn't given this warrant, the sheriff got onto the case after the chief had given him the goods sent out here, the sheriff found the car in the country, and he and a private citizen went 60-50 on the reward of $50. I am told, thus cheating the police pension fund out of this money after the police had done practically all the work on the case."

"It doesn't look to me as though our chief is getting a square deal. People go to him and make complaints, but he can't guarantee that they'll ever be able to get a warrant. As a result the chief is being openly censured when it is not his fault."

Mayor Makes Statement.

Mayor T. E. Welsh said he had heard a lot of rumors about the case, one of which led to discredit Chief Morrissey. He said it is only hearsay with him, but continued: "We might just as well settle the whole thing up and let the people know, the mayor said.

Detroit, Mich., July 27.—A statement to the police by Mrs. Leo Trumbull, wife of a patrolman, that Mrs. Eugene LoRoy, victim of Detroit's trunk murder mystery, had confided in her that she was about to become a mother, injected a new theory into the case today.

The police today divided their attention between a hunt for LoRoy, husband of the slain woman, and a second trunk believed to contain the vital organs of the body.

Police believe that examination of the organs might reveal whether death was due to a criminal operation, as has been hinted since Mrs. Trumbull made her statement.

POLITICAL FINANCES ARE IN BAD SHAPE

Both Democrats and Republicans Face Deficit in Campaign Expenses.

BY MARY LAWRENCE
Contributing Writer to the JANESEVILLE DAILY GAZETTE

Chicago, July 27.—Campaign finances of both the republican and the democratic parties are in none too good condition. Each side is handicapped by a particular set of circumstances entirely apart from the supposed restraints placed by the senate investigating committee was expected to apply this year to excessive spending.

The republicans are embarrassed because in a moment of indiscretion they committed themselves to a thousand dollars as the limit of the only pure republicans but only looking at the democrats say is wholly impractical for a short campaign. The democrats are affected by no such limits and can take any sum they please, but Wilbur Marsh, democratic national chairman, who was here to declare the democrats would reserve the right to refuse to accept contributions from sources not deemed sufficiently disinterested.

Big Expense at Elisco

The democrats are in bad shape because the San Francisco convention took at least $3,000,000 for travel and expenses from the individual delegates and also delayed the organization of the democratic campaign committee so that while the republicans have been at work for several weeks, the democrats haven't even begun. At least $1,000 counts in a committee for funds before it begins collecting money for a deficit after the election result is known is an almost impossible task.

G. O. P. Needs 5 Millions

The theory behind the republican approach to the question of finance is entirely different from that being adopted by the democrats. The republicans are depending upon large subscriptions up to $1,000 dollars which they must raise at least five million dollars. It is much harder to get five thousand persons to contribute one thousand dollars a piece than it is to get fifty thousand persons to give one hundred dollars. It isn't the five thousand republicans can be found to give one thousand dollars each but all contributions must be made public and the art of giving money to campaigns is not highly developed except in a small circle in both republican and democratic parties.

It's a Good System

The best system yet devised is the one the democrats established just after the close of the 1916 campaign when they found themselves confronted with a deficit. The budget of the Iowa treasurer, W. D. Janes, also a former director of finance, organized a regular financial factory which did nothing but write chain letters asking for small subscriptions. Five men would be asked to give small sums, for instance, and five requested to send in five dollars. Five other persons who might be interested in contributing equal amounts. In that way the democrats have acquired a mailing list of about three hundred thousand names. They collected in this way nearly two million

CITY MAIL SERVICE FOR EAST SIDERS

New System Goes Into Effect
August 1—Residents of New Additions Benefit.

The republicans have mistakenly educated organizers in some of the populous states to pay their workers and it is difficult to switch from a paid to a volunteer basis. In a few places where the democratic organization have acquired power of fast mail service, the same system of paying workers obtains but generally speaking neither political party could afford to buy the services of many workers on election day with out subjecting themselves to embarrassment.

In some quarters here it is predicted that by the time October arrives, the republicans will have to confess that the one thousand dollar limit isn't getting results and that a general appeal for funds of any size with the right to require contributions from sources not deemed sufficiently disinterested will have to be made.

Federal Laws Weak

Federal laws are weak with respect to campaign finances and there are plenty of ways of certifying that only five million dollars has been spent. The national party which a total of five and one thousand dollars may have been expended by state committees who do not have to make their contributions public or even certify to them. It is fair estimate that the national campaign committee of the republicans respectively will be less than the national committee of the democrats. The new law which has included the three states named, will be discontinued completely in those sections.

Conditions are attached that there must be sidewalks along the new territory and they must be connected with the main routes with sidewalks so that there will be a continuous stretch; the street corners must have street lights; house lettering must be provided and there must be mail boxes at every residence where mail is to be delivered.

Mail Order Sidewalks

As there are no sidewalks in parts of the territory, aldermen of the respective wards will be interviewed in regard to having them laid.

The new system will go into effect August 1, providing the new carriers are secured. An examination was made at the postoffice Saturday, the local civil service officers giving it. The results of this must go to Washington and be returned before the men are hired. Only a few took it. It was also for two new clerks.

$55 PRIZE FOR ONE WHO SOLVES PUZZLE

The $55 vacuum cleaner mentioned in the list of community picnic prizes Saturday will be given to the person who correctly solves a card board puzzle. It is to be noted that the puzzle was figured out on the day of the picnic, the cleaner will remain at the Chamber of Commerce until someone brings in the solution.

Already there are murmurs about the high cost of travel for speakers, the high cost of advertising and publicity and the fact that whereas a poor worker would give all his time in the old days for five dollars he would now join for less than $100. The offer of a few dollars each but all contributions must be made public and the art of giving money to campaigns is not highly developed except in a small circle in both republican and democratic parties.

It's a Good System

The best system yet devised is the one the democrats established just after the close of the 1916 campaign when they found themselves confronted with a deficit. The budget of the Iowa treasurer, W. The Diary of an Engaged Girl

SOME OF LINDSEY'S PET IDEAS GROW SHAKY.

July 14.—Well, you never will guess what happened at high noon yesterday. Miss Jean was up and got married to her Harvey. And all of a sudden, too. The happy bride and groom came into my life at my desk at tea time, looking very radiant, and all for Jean's words fail me. That girl was transformed.

Jean was never bad looking. She always had pretty gray eyes and a dear curved mouth, though, but believe me, she looked positively beautified today. No joking either.

I sat at her when they came in and wondered what on earth had happened to the Jean that I knew. This was she, to be sure, but so much more of her, or rather so much less beauty, and a certain elusive something else that I cannot find a word for.

She blushed a bit, laughed, then ran up to me and told me that having nothing better to do yesterday she and Harvey had gotten married. Of course I was shocked and congratulated both of them, and not having any idea, I thoughtfully dropped a few humble bread crumbs on their heads, as there was half loaf that I had been lurching off quite handy! And after that we sat down to talk it over.

Jean was so hilarious and so happy it got to me. I didn't know this girl at all. There was no cloud of doubt in her eyes, they were sparkling and sure of themselves, if you get me? Her red lips were very tumultuous, as though their burden of love and misery were almost too much to bear, and she just looked starry at me.

Love is indeed a beguiler; at least after seeing my Jean I'll say it. And Jean acknowledged same to me.

Heart and Home Problems

LETTERS SENT TO ADRIENNE TO MRS. THOMPSON, IN CARE OF THE GAZETTE.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a man, one can dislike her for she is sweet and darling, but I am in love with a young man about eight years my senior. We have gone together since the 27th of June, 1919. He has been very good to me and always said he loved me.

We were engaged, but a late got started that I had gone with another fellow and he got angry and asked me to break the engagement. I did. Now he has found out it was a lie and has apologized and is just as loving and kind as ever, but he never speaks of marriage any more. Do you think he ever will again?

When we broke up he refused to take his ring. Should I make him take it now?

Since you have kept the ring and you want it on your engagement finger, he probably takes it for granted that you are engaged. Be patient and he will marry you in time. You can judge for yourself if it will come for you by the way he acts and what he says. Do not return the ring unless you decide he does not love you and the engagement is broken.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Last summer I went out the world to start a woman which I was anxious to do. I never knew there were girls such as I got acquainted with—oh, the pain, staying out till the morning, drinking and going out with strong boys! That is the kind of girls I met, but I never went any place with them.

When I started I met the sweetest girl, so darling. She asked me to go to lunch with her and treat me to lovely I will never forget her. But she is one of the wild ones. I did not know until I worked there a couple of weeks. I could hardly believe it, but it is so because I have seen it since then. She is my age, just 18, but looks much older and I much younger.

I care for such girls nor enjoy anything she is on my mind constantly and it worries me to think she will never get what she has lost.

Girls have told me she does wild around home and her mother thinks the world of her, not knowing what she is. I don't believe any-

Veal and Ham Loaf—Three-quarters pound veal, one cup boiled ham, one and one-half cups stale bread moistened; one and one-half cups flour, one-half cup sugar, one-half cup salt; moisten through a griddle, add one beaten egg, one teaspoon of salt; moisten all with chili sauce, shape into a loaf, dredge in flour, place a small piece of suet on top and bake one hour. Serve hot today. Serve cold tomorrow, with stuffed eggs.

and many more. "Not only that," said she, with a low little laugh of sheer joy, "but it's like a laugh of relief, too. It need not be explained, no, it must be, I don't see how I lived without Harvey for so long."

Of course at this point I reminded her that I had managed to live without love and marriage, so far as I was not pining away, but she only laughed and smiled (superior, I know you know), and told me I didn't know what I was talking about as yet.

All this was rather embarrassing to me, because some of the things had been told to me by moonlight and I had no time to go by Cecil, and he was tired of a sudden, and was ready to stay and celebrate with me. She told me that it was right, and then Jean invited Cecil to come along. That would make a party of twice.

We had dinner with them, a good dinner so far as the food was concerned, and we toasted the couple in red wine to Dorn's success in getting her sitting with a (not very) expression in her eyes which looked ominous to me, and she produced a bottle of the best French wine, and more than one bottle.

We all got hilarious toward the end. Ted Storn and I had dropped in and several other people, so we turned on the violins and danced. It was a happy evening.

I must say between Jean and Fern I'm beginning to feel quite shaky about some of my pet ideas.

R. C. SENDS CHILDREN TO RUSSIAN HOMES

Tokio—The American Red Cross of Siberia, directed by Dr. R. B. Teusler of Toledo, has completed arrangements for the transportation of 760 Petrograd school children from Vladivostok to their former homes in Soviet Russia. The children, boys and girls, were expected to embark at Vladivostok for Riga on a chartered steamer, the Yemuri.

The steamer is a new 1,685-ton freighter and must be visited to carry 1,100 persons, including the crew, teachers, attendants and Red Cross personnel. The entire voyage via the Panama Canal is expected to require 90 days before the ship is returned to its owners at London, and the voyage, including about $500,000, will bring the ental of the Red Cross to nearly $1,000,000.

The boys and girls are some of the 6,000 children who were sent out of Petrograd in the troublous times.

of 1918 and were found scattered in Siberian cities. Most of the others have disappeared. One of the silent tragedies of Russia.

When the Red Cross decided to discontinue its work in Siberia it was decided to return the children to their former homes in the hope that they might find their former homes.

Sheboygan—Miss Edna Bronx, 21, of Sheboygan, had a narrow escape from death when struck by a bullet from a gun which had been fired at her. A her previous home in Sheboygan. She was given by Miss B. Cuhli to the car.

"Why shouldn't we gamble?" one pretty office girl asked. "Now the car is ours, we must have some harmless excitement, isn't it?"

"Some of us bet on tennis, and golf on engagements to marry, and even on what word people will open conversation with."

A business man complained his office girls "charter more about their bets than their work" and another declared his code "seemed more concerned about odds than ovens."

"She has even invited my wife to make bets," he added.

Potato Prices Are Highest Ever But Coming Down

Chicago—Potato prices at present time are higher than before in this country, at this price of the year, but they have been coming down for the last 10 days. It is reported at the U. S. Bureau of Markets. This has been due to heavy shipments of dried beans from the South, and a start in early September, and as weather is ideal for potatoes, prices for it are good, federal officials say. Acreage put in potatoes this year is smaller than last year, the outlook is for a better yield, and acre will be sold in large production. Last year's crop was

PARADE TO START COMMUNITY PICNIC

Details of Wednesday's Program and Program of Events. Senator Lenroot to Speak.

Old Jupiter Pluvius is the only element that can make the community picnic anything but a big success Wednesday. The sun will start with the big parade. Gage Park, the chairman of the parade committee, H. J. McMinn, will be marshal; C. L. Tilley, assistant marshal, and Capt. C. W. Fuglin, chief of staff. The parade will form on High street, all organizations starting in front of the school at 9:30.

So far as arranged the parade will be in three sections each headed by a band.

First section, Squad of police; Bower City band; Senator Lenroot and committee; St. reception in carriages; float with G. A. R. veterans; float with Spanish War Veterans; American Legion float and members in decorated automobiles; five tanks of the U. S. Tank corps from Camp Grant.

Second section, Evansville band; Industrial and Historical floats. There are some 20 of these scheduled.

Third section, Edgerton band; civic societies in floats; decorated automobiles, autos not decorated.

Line of March will be north on High street to Milwaukee street, east on Milwaukee to River, over South River to Court, east on Court to Main, north on Main to Milwaukee, to Waukegan, Franklin, to Washington, to Riverside park.

All organizations will maintain the line until Washington street when those who wish may fall out to the others maintaining position to the grounds.

Begin at Noon Hour.

The parade begins at 12 o'clock or as soon as the bands arrive. Grounds are opened early in the morning. Visitors may enter at any time. While the picnic is a basket affair the committee will have many food stands. The three bands will be located: Edgerton at the south end of the grounds; Bower City in center; and Evansville north end. Headquarters tent for the Sterling committee will be west of the dance hall and in the immediate vicinity is a rest room tent for women. Dinner will be served from 12 to 4.

Fred Bely will be in charge of the police force of the picnic. Chas. Handy will be in charge of the force at the auto parking grounds at the entrance to the park. Life guards will be at the river.

Program begins at One.

Sports program will start at 1 o'clock sharp with five events at the Riverside and a ball game at the South field between Janesville All Stars and American Legion team. It will be a double baseball out of doors.

At 2:30 Senator Lenroot will speak. The Chamber of Commerce quartet will sing and Prof. Thiele will lead in community singing with the band accompanying.

Following the speech of Senator Lenroot there will be water sports and the like of war. Most of the smaller prizes will be awarded to the winners at the grounds but the larger and more expensive ones will be left at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce to be called for there. The bean puzzle will be found at the headquarters tent.

Other attractions.

There is to be a "Midway" with many attractions, shows and booths for the sale of various articles. Band concerts will continue after the speaking for the rest of the day, the picnic officially closing at 6 o'clock. The Bower City band will give a complete concert at Court house park in the evening.

All factories will close except the Samson. Samson employee who desire to attend will be permitted. Many of the retail stores will be closed and shopping should be done today but there will be a number so that there will be open rest rooms and for public comfort.

Finishing Touches.

The steering committee having the picnic in charge held a meeting last night and will meet again tonight. Reports were made by the subcommittees. A report of thanks was given to Oscar Samson, chairman of the Samson committee to the men who assisted, to the quartet and to Miss Ames for participation in the programs, and to those who turned out with their automobiles.

C. L. Whitehead was selected as master of ceremonies. Later in the evening, Leo Atwood, who is in charge of erecting the stands and arranging for the bands, accompanied by a committee visited the grounds to see that details had been carried out.

A record crowd is expected from every section of the country. If it rains the picnic will be held on Thursday.

The Aid Society of St. Paul's Lutheran church will hold an Ice Cream Social at the Gus Schmidt home, 525 S. High St. Tuesday evening.

SENATOR I. L. LENROOT WILL ARRIVE AT 10:20

Senator Irvine Lenroot will speak at 2:30 p. m. at the Community picnic at Riverside park Wednesday afternoon. A large stand has been erected at the north end of the park in a natural amphitheatre.

William H. Dougherty, president of the Lenroot club, will introduce the speaker.

Senator Lenroot speaks at Darlington tonight. He will arrive in Janesville Wednesday morning at 10:20 o'clock. A reception committee from the Lenroot club, F. C. Grant, M. O. McFadden, Hon. John C. Whitehead and Stephen Bolles will meet him. At noon there will be a luncheon in his honor.

The senator will participate in the big parade during the morning.

2,250 Miles of Copper Wire Used Annually in Lightning Rod Factory is the job of one of Janesville's LIGHTING Jovis and his death-bringing streak of torched fire.

By RODNEY WELSH

The J. D. & C. E. Owens company, 12 years ago, makes every year thousands of copper lightning rods that are known and used throughout the United States. Just Monday an order came in for some rods and equipment from Spain, away down in the federated Malay states.

Has Great Conductivity

In the making of these rods more than 12,000,000 feet of pure copper are used annually.

Copper is used, because next to silver, it is said to have the very highest ratio of conductivity. Silver is assumed to have a conductivity ratio of 100 per cent, while pure copper has a ratio of 99.9 per cent.

Because it has been proved

1,000 EXPECTED AT K. C. PICNIC SUNDAY

Big Program Announced for Annual Outing of Councils of Three Cities.

that the larger the surface the greater the conductivity, there are 280 fine copper wires wound around the spiral core. This makes a hollow cable with many small wires and a resultant increase in surface area.

Wound, Indo Cables

These many wires are wound onto the heavy cable by a large automatic machine that simultaneously rewinds the large cable onto a big spool. 56' of the 12,000,000 feet of small copper wire there comes but 10' of the cable.

Besides the cable there are the fancy weather vanes, the red and blue glass balls that children like to pop with an air gun, and the twisted support that holds the vane, the colored glass ball, and the copper tube that goes to complete the rod that Janesville turns out.

The Owen Lightning Rod company is located at 21-23 North Franklin street.

COUNCIL VOTES TO WIDEN CENTER AVE.; EXTEND BOULEVARD

By RODNEY WELSH

Center avenue is to be made a full 30 foot thoroughfare by means of a motion taken by the council Monday night. The Modern Housing corporation is making it a 30-foot street beyond the Monterey bridge while north of the bridge it can easily be made a 30-foot street of that width.

Accordingly the council ordered the board of public works to purchase, for not more than $125, the east 13 feet of lots 65 and 66 in Monterey addition. The street is to be 30 feet wide at that point.

Officials of the Navy department say the proposed mobilization will in no sense result in "grand" maneuvers. No effort will be made to concentrate all of the nation's naval strength and ships regularly in connection with trained crews will participate. The exercises and drills will be simple and mainly of the competitive nature, including unofficial athletic competitions between representatives of the two fleets and of individual ships. The main object of the mobilization will be to give officers and men an opportunity to compare notes and meet for a few weeks of good-natured racing.

Music will be furnished during the day by the Beloit Knights of Columbus band.

NAVAL STRENGTH TO BE MOBILIZED

By RODNEY WELSH

Washington.—The greatest concentration of sea powers in the history of the American navy will result from the junction of the reorganized Atlantic and Pacific fleets off the Pacific coast next January under plans now being prepared by naval operations.

The great naval spectacle probably will be staged in the vicinity of the mouth of the Columbia.

NO DEMOCRATS FILE NOMINATION PAPERS

By RODNEY WELSH

London, England.—English people have determined upon a policy of strict economy resulting in a considerable increase in the number of bankruptcies during the last few months. These failures have occurred not only in London but also in the provinces. Business men are compelled to be more thrifty and more careful in their spending.

The bankrupts will be unique in many respects, chiefly in that they will afford the first actual mobilization of the bulk of the new American navy.

Before the war, the forces were scattered and a shortage was general, so that there was no lack of men.

At the "First Time" Mobilized

During the war the shortage in most types of ships was so great that destroyers and submarines were overloaded with men. The entire fleet was never mobilized due to the use of practically all light craft in the war zone, the detail of cruisers to escort duty and the fact that a considerable portion of the naval force was not available for the war.

The January maneuvers will set a new mark in American naval progress. For the first time in the history of the new navy the battleship fleet will be supported by a relatively adequate number of destroyers and other light craft. Submarines will be available in abundance, together with sufficient naval aircraft for all tactical purposes and fully rounded out fleet of auxiliary vessels.

The new navy has been organized to meet the needs of the new American navy.

Victory Heights, comprising 47 lots, bounded on the west by Racine street, east by Clark, with Horne Park and Bostwick avenues intersecting, was one of the plats approved.

Van Pool's subdivision, owned by E. E. Van Pool, is made up of six lots on the south side of Benton avenue, just east of Bostwick avenue. The first two lots were filed; it was explained to divide the original River Heights addition, because of some question as to title to part of it.

ALDERMEN APPROVE FOUR MORE PLATS

Four plats of subdivisions and additions were approved by the council Monday night upon recommendation of City Engineer C. V. Koenig. The new subdivisions are: Heights, Van Pool's subdivision, Crestview addition, and River Heights.

POLES EVACUATE CITY SAY AMERICAN RELIEF WORKERS

Warsaw, July 26.—The Polish population of Bielskostok is evacuating that city, 40 miles southwest of Grodno and within the Polish line of demarcation, according to American forces who return from Bielskostok to Warsaw afternoons. Herschel Walkin, president of the American Relief Association, the last American out of Bielskostok, left that city at 12 o'clock Sunday night after having supervised the removal of 90 cars of food.

New York.—Colonel John E. Hunt was released from technical arrest in prison after the army court martial trying him in connection with the case of the German agent, had reported its findings.

Lodge News

All comrades of the G. A. R. are requested to meet at the East Side I. O. O. F. hall at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, to take part in the parade. Automobiles will be followed to carry all those who are present.

Laurel Lodge No. 2, Degree of Honor, will meet at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at Eagles' Hall. There will be initiation of new members.

Grand Master G. Stanley Joslin, Plainfield, will visit Janesville City Lodge, No. 30, this evening at West Side Odd Fellows' Hall.

"13" Is No Hoodoo For Choir Boys

Big Program Announced for Annual Outing of Councils of Three Cities.

Boys of Trinity church choir, 12 in number, with their leader Rev. Henry Willmann, who returned from Lauderdale lakes yesterday believe they have broken the hoodoo connected with the number 13. They are 13 years old, 13 of them had been numbered, and it was the thirteenth camp at which Mr. Willmann was leader. There are 13 letters in his name.

More than 1,000 Southern Wisconsin Knights of Columbus and their Sunday school children will gather at Yost's Park Sunday when councils from the cities of Beloit and Beloit and Beloit have their joint outing.

Special interurban service has been engaged.

The program is scheduled to open at 10 o'clock and to continue with a list of field and water sports until 4 o'clock.

Boxing matches in which Beloit men will take on Janesville and Beloit opponents and wrestling matches between Beloit and Janesville experts will start the program.

At 12 o'clock there will be a baseball game between teams representing the councils of the three cities. At 12 o'clock there will be a baseball game between teams representing the Janesville and Beloit K. C. council.

At 1:30 o'clock the council at its next meeting will pass an ordinance either raising the license fee of peddlers to a figure to keep them out of Janesville or putting the responsibility for their coming here in the hands of the police committee.

Alermen Badger started the discussion Monday night. His views were heartily endorsed by Aldermen Horn, Dulin and Hilt.

It was brought out that any peddler holding a state license may secure city license by merely paying down $2 on the city clerk's desk. It is understood he is obliged to issue it.

Until the council can act, the chief of police will be instructed to keep them off the street corners, it was decided.
